

JOURNEY THROUGH CENTRAL ITALY

Arts and Humanities for Adults June 12 - 21, 2010

This tour offers a wonderful opportunity to step into the cultural richness and artistic wealth of Umbria, Toscana, and Lazio. Spoleto, a gorgeous town emblematic of Central Italy, will serve as our base throughout the tour. Our guide will be Lorenzo Muti. A native of Spoleto and former faculty member at Duke University, he is a great connoisseur of Italian art and history; as well, Lorenzo is a professional conductor. Your stay will be enhanced by his intriguing insights into Italian culture and society.

SAMPLE ITINERARY and SUBJECT TO CHANGE

Saturday, June 12: Depart for Rome from the United States

Sunday, June 13: Arrive in Rome, meet group and travel by coach to Spoleto

Spoleto, the seat of a Lombard Duchy during the High Middle Ages, still preserves a vast array of artistic memories from its historical past. This in-depth tour will take you from Roman time, to the early Christian period, from the Middle Ages and to the blooming of the Renaissance. The XV Century Duomo preserves the last fresco cycle by the Florentine painter Fra Filippo Lippi.

Monday, June 14: SPOLETO and ASSISI

Spend the morning relaxing and exploring Spoleto, perhaps taking a walk across the Ponte delle Torri to the Monteluco. After lunch we will take a short ride through the valley, passing the hill towns of Trevi and Spello, to Assisi. This magical town still preserves the atmosphere, the colors and the sounds that must have been so familiar to Saint Francis and his poor friars. The recently re-opened Basilica will be a sight to behold for years.

Tuesday, June 15 through Thursday, June 17: ADVENTURE TO TUSCANY

Our travel will include Florence, San Gimignano, Volterra, Lucca and Siena.

ITINERARY SUBJECT TO CHANGE

A few bits of info:

Florence, the birthplace of the Renaissance civilization, is the kind of city that will appeal to the history buff, the art lover or simply the admirer of nature. Winding through the streets of the old part of town, taking a walk along the Arno River, visiting the many museums or churches will magically put you in touch with many of the greatest minds of western civilization from Dante to Michelangelo, from Botticelli to Boccaccio. You will be treated in Siena to a detailed visit of the Palazzo del Comune (Town Hall) with its splendid frescoes and a spiritually charged tour of the resplendent Gothic Duomo. On the material side, you will have time to do some shopping in the many fashionable shops that line the colorful streets of the city. A charming two night stay in the gorgeous Tuscan countryside will conclude this excursion.

Friday, June 18: SPOLETO, MONTEFALCO and TREVÌ

Relax and explore the jewels of Spoleto. An afternoon visit to Montefalco will offer you one of the most spectacular views of the countryside and a chance to taste some of the best wines in the region. A short trip across the valley to the adjacent hilltown of Trevi will provide a complete view of the area.

Saturday, June 19: VILLA ADRIANA and TIVOLI

Just 30 kilometers northeast of Rome, explore Emperor Hadrian's Villa Adriana, one or the largest villas, including baths and gardens, ever built in the Roman Empire. A short distance away is the famous Villa d'Este, home of the spectacular Tivoli Gardens. Built in 1550, for Cardinal Ippolito d'Este, its terraced gardens, fish ponds and unique moss covered fountains will cool you, even on the warmest of days.

Sunday, June 20: CAPRAROLA and ORVIETO

Traveling through hazelnut groves, Caprarola is dominated by the hilltop Palazzo Farnese, designed by Vignola. Etruscan and Roman ruins await your exploration. Situated at the top of a steep hill, Orvieto will mystify you with its Etruscan past and its magnificent cathedral containing the greatest work of Luca Signorelli, a real precursor of the "divine" Michelangelo.

Monday, June 21: Depart for the United States from Rome

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS

In a captivating atmosphere of history and culture, the 4-star Hotel Nuovo Clitunno is located in the center of Spoleto surrounded by the works of art that the city has kept and enhanced over the centuries. Within a short walking distance are the Roman Theatre, beautiful piazzas and La Rocca.

A single hotel room supplement is available for $400.
